STIPULATION, AGREEMENT AND AFFIDAVIT CONSENTING TO A FINDING OF, AND ORDER REGARDING, CONTEMPT

On this 28th day of September 2012, Kim E. Ikeler, Assistant Regulation Counsel; and Jill Armstrong, the Respondent, enter into the following stipulation, agreement, and affidavit consenting to a finding of, and order regarding, contempt ("stipulation") and submit the same to the Colorado Supreme Court for a finding and order of contempt pursuant to C.R.C.P. 238-239.

1. The Respondent's address is ~~1365 Columbine St., Ste. 603, Denver, CO 80202~~ ^{1615 CANTON ST, SUITE 400, DENVER,} ~~CO~~ ⁸⁰²⁰²

80206. The Respondent is not licensed to practice law in the State of Colorado.

2. The Respondent enters into this stipulation freely and voluntarily. No promises have been made concerning future consideration, punishment, or lenience in the above-referenced matter. It is the Respondent's personal decision, and the Respondent affirms there has been no coercion or other intimidating acts by any person or agency concerning this matter.

3. The Respondent is familiar with the rules of the Colorado Supreme Court regarding the unauthorized practice of law. The Respondent acknowledges the right to a full and complete evidentiary hearing on the above-referenced petition for contempt. At any such hearing, the Respondent would have the right to be represented by counsel, present evidence, call witnesses, and cross-examine the witnesses presented by the petitioner. At any such formal hearing, the petitioner would have the burden of proof and would be required to prove the charges contained in the petition for contempt beyond a reasonable doubt. Nonetheless, having full knowledge of the right to such a formal hearing, the Respondent waives that right.

4. The Respondent and the petitioner stipulate to the following facts and conclusions:

a. On November 29, 2010, the Colorado Supreme Court issued an order that enjoined Respondent from the unauthorized practice of law in Colorado. People v. Jill Armstrong, f/k/a Jill Drevescraft, 09SA372. The November 29, 2010 Order was a lawful order of the Colorado Supreme Court.

b. Respondent knew of the November 29, 2010 Order. Respondent was personally served with the Order on February 24, 2011.

c. Respondent had the ability to comply with the November 29, 2010 Order issued by the Colorado Supreme Court. Respondent was only required by such Order to stop engaging in the unauthorized practice of law.

d. During 2011, Respondent operated an office suite at 1633 Fillmore St., Denver, CO 80206. The phone number for the suite was 303-355-0242.

e. Sean Willner and Christine Willner were getting a divorce. Sean Willner was represented by Stephen Morse.

f. Attorney Nathan Vanderhoofven was representing Ms. Willner. Respondent worked for attorney Vanderhoofven as a paralegal. On court filings, attorney Vanderhoofven listed his address as 1633 Fillmore St., Denver, CO 80206 and his phone as 303-355-0242.

g. On October 5, 2011 at 12:10 p.m., Respondent left the following message on Mr. Willner's voice mail:

Hi, Sean. This is Jill with Nathan Vanderhoofven's office. I'm just giving a call to let you know, um, we're looking at, um, in the next thirty days we need to know if you want a CFI investigator or not. Um, if you do, then, um, it's gonna be about twenty-five, it could be about five thousand dollars. Also, um, we are looking at in the next thirty days, um, we're also going to need to have some, um, some information about child support. We're asking that you pay, uh, maintenance of upwards of six hundred dollars, and that you pay child support in about, uh, in, um, upwards of fifteen hundred dollars. So, we need to make sure that those things are paid and agreed upon. You can call us back here at, uh, 303-355-2042. Um, if you have any other things that, you need expert witnesses, anything like that, let us know before we go to trial. Um, we need to go over a couple of other things to see what kind of settlement we can come to. Um, and I think that is about it. I know that, um, Christine would like to keep the house and file a Chapter 13. Uh, you need to let us know, uh, how you feel about that, too. Phone number here: 303-355-0242, and you have thirty days. Goodbye.

h. Respondent made these statements to Mr. Willner on her own initiative. Although he was in the office at the time, attorney Vanderhoofven did not authorize Respondent discuss substantive legal matters with Mr. Willner or leave a message for Mr. Willner concerning substantive legal matters.

i. In addition to the fact that attorney Vanderhoofven had not authorized Respondent to make settlement demands on Mr. Willner, Respondent knew from her execution of the Stipulation in 09SA372 that she was not permitted to act in a representative capacity on behalf of Ms. Willner in the divorce case or to negotiate on her behalf with Mr. Willner.

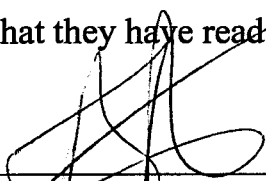

5. Pursuant to C.R.C.P. 251.32, the Respondent agrees to pay administrative costs in the sum of $91.00 incurred in conjunction with this matter within sixty

(60) days after the acceptance of the stipulation by the Colorado Supreme Court, made payable to Colorado Supreme Court Attorney Regulation Offices.

RECOMMENDATION FOR AND CONSENT TO ORDER OF CONTEMPT

Based on the foregoing, the parties hereto recommend that an order be entered finding the Respondent in contempt of the November 29, 2010 order of injunction; that the Respondent be fined $2,000, $1,000 payable within sixty (60) days after acceptance of this stipulation by the Colorado Supreme Court, the remaining $1,000 payable one year from the date of the Supreme Court's acceptance of the stipulation; and requiring Respondent to pay costs of $91.

Jill Armstrong, the Respondent, and the petitioner's attorney, Kim E. Ikeler, acknowledge by signing this document that they have read and reviewed the above.
