

People v. Robertie. 06PDJ007. February 23, 2006. Attorney Regulation. The Presiding Disciplinary Judge approved a Conditional Admission of Misconduct submitted by the parties and suspended Respondent George F. Robertie (Attorney Registration No. 28417) from the practice of law for a period of one year and one day, with conditions of reinstatement, effective February 3, 2006. Respondent attempted to obtain a controlled substance when he took a blank prescription form from his doctor, filled in false information on the prescription form, and submitted it to a pharmacy. The potential injuries of Respondent's actions include defrauding a pharmacist and illegally obtaining a controlled substance. Respondent pled guilty in Denver District Court to the charge of obtaining a controlled substance by fraud or deceit, which is a class 5 felony and a serious crime, as defined by C.R.C.P. 251.20(e)(1). Respondent's misconduct constituted grounds for the imposition of discipline pursuant to C.R.C.P. 251.5 and violated Colo. RPC 8.4(b) and (c). Respondent fully cooperated with the Office of Attorney Regulation in proceedings related to this misconduct.
