

COLORADO SUPREME COURT BOARD OF LAW EXAMINERS

CHANGE OF ADDRESS FORM

If your mailing address, email or telephone number changes, it must be reported in writing. A new notice of change must be filed with the Board for each change in your mailing address (even if a reported change is temporary and you are returning to a previous address). Address changes will not be accepted by telephone.

Important information concerning your eligibility to sit for the bar exam, admission badges, character and fitness inquiries and bar examination results will be mailed to the most recent address on file with this Board. Don't miss these important mailings by failing to inform the Board of changes to your mailing address.

Use of this form to report address changes will help to ensure that such changes are appropriately noted and promptly recorded.
