

People v. Hahn, No. 03PDJ108. 12/30/03. Attorney Regulation.

The Presiding Disciplinary Judge approved the parties' Conditional Admission of Misconduct and suspended Respondent, James H. Hahn, attorney registration number 12811 from the practice of law for a period of thirty days, all stayed upon completion of a one year period of probation subject to conditions. Respondent was administratively suspended from the practice of law for failure to comply with Continuing Education Requirements.

Respondent, alleging that he was unaware that he had been administratively suspended, continued to practice law for a period of seven months in violation of Colo. RPC 5.5(a). Additionally, respondent represented clients in a matter involving the purchase of an automobile. Respondent agreed to take action on behalf of the clients by contacting the dealership and the bank regarding the clients' loan and failed to do so in violation of Colo. RPC 1.3 and Colo. RPC 1.4(a) and (b). Respondent was ordered to pay the costs of the disciplinary proceeding.
