

People v. Bruce A. Logan. 17PDJ001. January 4, 2017.

The Presiding Disciplinary Judge approved the parties' conditional admission of misconduct and suspended Bruce A. Logan (attorney registration number 14187) from the practice of law for one year and one day, all to be stayed upon the successful completion of a three-year period of probation with conditions. The probation takes effect January 4, 2017.

Logan is subject to several orders entered in Arapahoe County requiring him to pay child support, various child-related expenses, and child support arrearages. Logan paid just over half of the child support obligations he owed between June 2015 and November 2016. Logan's failure to satisfy these obligations violated Colo. RPC 3.4(c) (a lawyer shall not knowingly disobey an obligation under the rules of a tribunal) and Colo. RPC 8.4(d) (a lawyer shall not engage in conduct prejudicial to the administration of justice).
