

People v. Ventura, No. 01PDJ075. 10.18.01. Attorney Regulation.

The Presiding Disciplinary Judge approved the parties' Conditional Admission of Misconduct in this reciprocal discipline matter from the State of Utah, and suspended the Respondent, George G. Ventura, from the practice of law for a period of twelve months, with nine months stayed subject to conditions.

Respondent violated Colo. RPC 1.6 by revealing information relating to the representation of a client when such disclosures were not authorized, and violated Colo. RPC 8.4(b) by pleading no contest to four misdemeanor charges of attempted unauthorized access to computer systems. Respondent was ordered to pay the costs of the proceeding.
