

People v. Walberg. 06PDJ015. May 5, 2006. Attorney Regulation. The Presiding Disciplinary Judge approved a Conditional Admission of Misconduct submitted by the parties and suspended Respondent Kurt E. Walberg (Attorney Registration No. 13023) from the practice of law for a period of thirty days; all stayed upon the successful completion of a one-year period of probation, with conditions, effective June 5, 2006. Beginning in 2002, Respondent knowingly failed to comply with his court-ordered child support obligation, but certified compliance on his 2003-05 attorney registration statements. In April 2005, he filed a joint stipulation with the court that addressed the arrearage, completed payment on the arrearage in December 2005, and has remained current with his child support obligation since April 2005. Respondent's misconduct constituted grounds for the imposition of discipline pursuant to C.R.C.P. 251.5 and violated Colo. RPC 3.4(c), and 8.4(c).
