REPORT OF HEARING MASTER PURSUANT TO C.R.C.P. 236(a)

This matter is before the Presiding Disciplinary Judge ("PDJ") on an "Order of Injunction" issued by the Colorado Supreme Court ("Supreme Court") on April 6, 2010. In its order, the Supreme Court enjoined Todd Newsome and Newsome & Associates, Inc. ("Respondents") from the unauthorized practice of law and referred the matter to the PDJ "for findings and recommendations regarding the imposition of fines and costs against Respondents, Todd Newsome and Newsome & Associates, Inc."

On June 10, 2010, Kim E. Ikeler, Office of Attorney Regulation Counsel ("the People"), filed "Petitioner's Motion Regarding Assessment of Restitution, Fines and Costs." On August 27, 2010, the PDJ held a status conference in this matter, during which Respondents were ordered to file a response to the People's motion on or before September 13, 2010. On September 14, 2010, Respondents filed a response.

In their request, the People ask the maximum fine of $1,000.00 be assessed against Respondents, contending that at the time Respondents committed the acts upon which this case is founded, they were already under an Order of Injunction entered by the Colorado Supreme Court in 2003.¹ The People argue that based on this earlier case, which involved conduct similar to that at issue in this proceeding, Respondents were aware they had been ordered not to engage in the unauthorized practice of law but nevertheless continued to do so. In addition, the People attach to their motion a "Statement of Costs" in the amount of $166.00 for their administrative fee and process service.
