

People v. Fischer, No. 00PDJ030 8/14/00. Attorney Regulation

The Presiding Disciplinary Judge accepted the parties' Conditional Admission of Misconduct and suspended Respondent, Gene E. Fischer from the practice of law for a period of thirty days with thirty days stayed followed by a two-year period of probation with conditions. Respondent entered into a business transaction with his clients and acquired a security or pecuniary interest adverse to the client and failed to recommend to the clients that they seek the advice of outside counsel in violation of Colo. RPC 1.8(a). Respondent was ordered to pay the costs of the proceedings.